Project #AEC -AL-2011-059-S

The Environmental Management Participation Program for the U.S. Army Environmental Command (USAEC) provides opportunities to participate in USAEC on-going applied research and development projects, and environmental technology demonstration projects at Army installations worldwide. Project areas include Environmental Compliance and Planning, Cultural Resources, Natural Resources, Range Management, and Geographical Information Systems.

PROJECT DETAILS

Several appointments are available at the Environmental Division of the Forestry Branch of Fort A.P. Hill, VA.

This appointment includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Assist with the collection of forestry data related to forest regeneration, stand species composition, tree health, stand age, site index, slope and aspect on Fort A.P. Hill.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants should be pursuing a bachelor's degree in Environmental Science, Biology, Forestry or related discipline, or have received their degree within three years of the desired starting date, or completion of all requirements for the degree should be expected on or about the starting date. Other applicants will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The program is open to all qualified U.S. citizens without regard to race, sex, religion, color, age, physical or mental disability, national origin, or status as a Vietnam era or disabled veteran.

The participants will be selected based on academic records, recommendations, applied research interests and compatibility of background with applied research programs and projects at Fort A.P. Hill, VA and/or the host Installation.

The initial appointment is for three months during the summer and may be renewed for up to three additional years based upon recommendation of USAEC and subject to availability of funds. The appointment is full time at Fort A.P. Hill, VA.

The participant will receive a monthly stipend. The stipend rate is determined based upon level of education, training, and experience. Inbound travel and moving expenses are reimbursed according to established policies. Travel and other costs will also be reimbursed for training related to the project and approved by ORISE and the host installation.

The participant must show proof of health and medical insurance. Health plans are available through the Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education for Postgraduate Internship participants. The appointment is full time at the host installation.
