The Research Participation Program for the U.S. Army Center for Health Promotion and Preventive Medicine (USACHPPM) provides opportunities to participate in USACHPPM on-going applied research projects in the areas of environmental health engineering, entomological sciences, ionizing and nonionizing radiation, occupational and environmental health, industrial hygiene and worksite hazards, environmental sanitation and hygiene, and laboratory services worldwide.

PROJECT DETAILS

An appointment is available at US Army Center for Health Promotion and Preventative Medicine with the Directorate of Environmental Health and Engineering with AQSP (program 43).

This appointment includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Assist with research in the field of air quality surveillance including developing familiarity with air pollution/ air sampling principles; equipment calibration/maintenance procedures; and gravimetric analysis of filters.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants should have received an associates degree in Engineering Technology or related discipline within three years of the desired starting date, or completion of all requirements for the degree should be expected on or about the starting date. Other applicants will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The program is open to all qualified U.S. citizens without regard to race, sex, religion, color, age, physical or mental disability, national origin, or status as a Vietnam era or disabled veteran.

The participants will be selected based on academic records, recommendations, applied research interests and compatibility of background with applied research programs and projects at Aberdeen, Maryland and/or the host Installation.

The initial appointment is for one year and may be renewed for up to two additional years based upon recommendation of USACHPPM and subject to availability of funds. The appointment is full time at Aberdeen, Maryland.

The participant will receive a monthly stipend. The stipend rate is determined based upon level of education, training, and experience. Inbound travel and moving expenses are reimbursed according to established policies. Travel and other costs will also be reimbursed for training related to the project and approved by ORISE and the host installation.

The participant must show proof of health and medical insurance. Health plans are available through the Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education for Postgraduate Internship participants. The appointment is full time at the host installation.
