Health Promotion Project at Fort Hood in Texas

Project #CHPPM BZ-2010-005

The Research Participation Program for the U.S. Army Center for Health Promotion and Preventive Medicine (USACHPPM) provides opportunities to participate in USACHPPM on-going applied research projects in the areas of environmental health engineering, entomological sciences, ionizing and nonionizing radiation, occupational and environmental health, industrial hygiene and worksite hazards, environmental sanitation and hygiene, and laboratory services worldwide.

PROJECT DETAILS

An appointment is available at Health Promotion Operations at the Directorate of Health Promotion and Wellness with the US Army Center for Health Promotion and Preventive Medicine.

This appointment includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Assist to support the Fort Hood Resiliency Campus and provide point of service wellness center testing, classes, and education.
- Assist in collecting data and metrics that show a change in physical and behavioral health of the individual receiving wellness center services. Wellness Center services support the MTF continuum of care, CPGs and primary prevention services for the installation.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants should have received a master's degree in Health Sciences or related discipline within three years of the desired starting date, or completion of all requirements for the degree should be expected on or about the starting date. Other applicants will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The program is open to all qualified U.S. citizens without regard to race, sex, religion, color, age, physical or mental disability, national origin, or status as a Vietnam era or disabled veteran.

The participants will be selected based on academic records, recommendations, applied research interests and compatibility of background with applied research programs and projects at Fort Hood, Texas and/or the host Installation.

The initial appointment is for one year and may be renewed for up to two additional years based upon recommendation of USACHPPM and subject to availability of funds. The appointment is full time at Fort Hood, Texas.

The participant will receive a monthly stipend. The stipend rate is determined based upon level of education, training, and experience. Inbound travel and moving expenses are reimbursed according to established policies. Travel and other costs will also be reimbursed for training related to the project and approved by ORISE and the host installation.

The participant must show proof of health and medical insurance. Health plans are available through the Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education for Postgraduate Internship participants. The appointment is full time at the host installation.
