Committed to DEIA?
SO ARE WE!

What We Offer

• A Minority Serving Institution Research Council to increase the competitiveness and readiness of 30 MSI faculty and students to fully participate in the federal research enterprise.
• Partnership with the Thurgood Marshall College Fund, the nation’s largest organization exclusively supporting all 47 public Historically Black Colleges and Universities, to connect students, recent graduates, faculty members and professionals with meaningful mentored research experiences at national labs and other federal research facilities around the country.
• Selected for the NIH Path to Excellence Initiative, which is designed to assist in strengthening contracting opportunities for Historically Black Colleges and Universities, while improving collaborations with small businesses.

Why ORAU

ORAU is committed to fostering, cultivating and preserving a culture of diversity, equity, inclusion and accessibility as we fulfill our mission to advance national priorities and serve the public interest by integrating academic, government and scientific resources globally. Our work in this area includes:

• Partnering with Meharry Medical College to provide leadership in health equity and researcher diversity.
• Climate change research with the U.S. Climate Reference Network sites.
• Developing computer simulations to improve disaster planning in rural communities.
• Research into the links between COVID-19 health risk disparities and air pollutant exposures.
• Research into how the COVID-19 pandemic magnified barriers to career development for women in science.
• Building workforce capacity for rural and frontier health departments.
