Will your research produce results?
LET’S FIND OUT!

Why ORAU

When a federal, state or private research funding organization disseminates scientific information or awards grants, it is critical that the proposed information be scientifically feasible and have verifiable technical merit. Let us help you do this with our:

- 25+ years of peer review and program evaluation experience
- Proprietary network of more than 18,000 global subject matter experts and access to numerous other expert databases
- PeerNet—ORAU’s web-based, mobile-optimized peer review management system
- Integrity of reviews through identification and management of reviewer conflict of interest, bias, etc.
- Capability to manage your project from start to finish or managing any component

What We Offer

Through a customizable peer review process using an external network of industry-specific experts, ORAU helps you make informed decisions about the quality and value of the science you pursue.

- Scientific Peer Review & Grants Management
